

Assistant Professor Dr. Chanin Yoopetch
Instructor

AcComm & Image International Co., Ltd.

Chanin specializes in Finance and Human Capital. As a US educated person, he is very comfortable working with teams from different cultural background. He was Director of BBA International Program at The School of Business University of the Thai Chamber of Commerce, Thailand. As a Secretary to the Ambassador of Turkish Embassy in Thailand in 1988, an Economist in Tax Policy Division to the Ministry of Finance – Thailand, he has strong background in Finance and Business Administration. Chanin has also published world-class academic paper such as Successful Consumer Banking, The Growth, Barriers, and Opportunities of Internet Banking in Thailand, Activities of Internet among Chinese Tourists Visiting Thailand etc. which were presented in international conference in many countries.

Chanin had BA in Economics from the University of the Thai Chamber of Commerce, and Master of Business Administration in Finance from The University of Toledo, Ohio, USA. He has Ph.D. in Development Administration from National Institute of Development Administration. In 2006, he was awarded as “Outstanding Student” from the Institute. Chanin is an author of various financial, strategy, and human capital articles in many international journals. The recent clients he has worked with include TCC group and Banpu Plc. etc.. Chanin is fluent in English and Thai.

Chanin has great communication skills and is an expert in training executives and all levels in Business Finance, Finance for Non-finance Manager, Analysis of Financial Institutions, International Business Finance, Project Management, Taxation, and Organizational Behavior. Besides teaching the programs for the University, he has been training our clients and organizations using practical methodologies and tools.