

Sukanya Mongkol

Instructor

Tel. 02 197 4588-89

AcComm & Image International Co., Ltd.

Sukanya has 10 years experience as a professional trainer and facilitator. Her outgoing personality and unique approach to training delivery have made Sukanya a much sought-after workshop facilitator with companies across various industries, levels, and generations.

Sukanya started her career as a flight attendant at Jalways where she learned to speak Japanese, team management and cross-cultural communication. She has been a role-model of an effective team leader and therefore, she was quickly promoted to Supervisor Position. Sukanya has professional personality and believes strongly in self development. She is frequently selected to be a brand ambassador and a presenter of various international brands. She has also held the high-accountability, leading and management position as a Purser of Business Air. Sukanya's training experience has encompassed areas, such as Supervisor Skills, Customer Relationship Management, Excellent Services, Cross-cultural Communication and Personality Development.

Through her studies in Faculty of Communication Arts from Chulalongkorn University, she has been a professional speaker, and also an entertainer who always creates joyful learning environments for our clients.

Her specialized areas include Professional Image, Personality Development, Customer Service, Supervisory Skills, Leadership Development, Emotional Intelligence and cross-cultural communication.
